“ Dear Dan, Jen, Jamie, and Jodi,
Words can't express how sorry I am for your loss. My heart broke when I heard the news. Coach Dan, I stopped by your house on Thursday afternoon as my family and I had just got into town to visit my parents. Unfortunately no one was home. I wanted to give you my condolences in person and give you a massive hug. I will never forget how you and Barb were always there for me through my school years. You guys have always had and will continue to hold a special place in my heart. My soul aches for you all. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dan, Jennifer, Jamie, and Jodi, I am sorry to hear of the loss of your wife and mother. I really wanted to come to the funeral home but I had company in from Colorado and we are leaving for a vacation. Your mother was a wonderful person and when her and your father would see me in town they would always know who I was and go out of her way to talk to me. Jennifer, I think your mother knew everyone from the class of 1991. You are all in my thought and prayers.

Your Friend,

“ We were so saddened and shocked to read of Barb's passing. "Miss Barb" was Kelsey's first pre-school Siler teacher and she took our daughter under her wing and made sure every day was a good one for her. Barb was kind, thoughtful, honest, patient, and loved her Siler kids! She instilled her thoughtfulness in those kids and taught them so many valuable lessons. Barb will be greatly missed, but forever remembered. Our thoughts are with her family and we're wishing them peace at this difficult time.

“ Dear Miss Barb's family --

Words cannot truly express my feelings of deep sadness at the loss of your mom, your grandma, your wife, my friend, and my daughter's teacher. I knew Barb from my days of dropping off children to place in her care at Siler Center. As a mom, it is so comforting to know that your child is in good hands while you are at work -- except that my children were not just in good hands, they were in the best hands - loving hands. Barb loved not only my kids, but all the kids in her care, unconditionally and without judgment or harsh words. Yes, she taught kids content information through her teaching, but more importantly, she taught them how to play well with others, how to love books, how to be creative, and most of all, how to care about each other. What a good and genuine soul she was. She is missed already.

“ SO saddened and shocked to hear this news and I immediately was flooded with years of fun memories of her in high school. We were always seated in alphabetical order so she was always right behind me in every class. And that's ironic cause that's exactly how Barb was in life, she had your back. She was,always there with support, laughter and words of encouragement. And she had the back of every friend, her husband and family. She always spoke from her heart and you could count on her. I can still hear her cracking up and a ton of memories are flooding in. We are all lucky to have known her. She was the real deal. My deepest condolences to her beloved husband Dan and her amazing amazing family. May you all find strength until you all meet again.

“ Barb was a wonderful person. She was so kind and caring and simply loved her family and friends! I remember years ago I got to really know both Barb and Dan through their beloved Keaton the dog. We really bonded through Keaton. Now Milo was sent to take care of Barb and Dan. Milo will be a God Send to watch over Dan at this rough time. God has taken Barb from her family and friends but she will become an angle to watch over us all. She will be sadly missed!!
