“ His mom, Eileen, would take me with her every week to bring McDonald's to John...it was a big treat for him. I sat with him near the house in Dunmore many times over the years, we took walks, he sure had tons of energy. He was always very sweet to me and told me he loved me a few times, that was gold...I think I was a nice break from all of the brothers. He loved to chat and I would let him rip! He was a sweet soul.
See ya again, John, your sister Marina.
