“ I just wish you could have known just how much you meant to people dad. You never thought you were good enough but you couldn't have been more wrong. You were the closest to the meaning saint than Anyone could ever know. Especially in the eyes of god. I miss you so much.

“ Amos was a kind, sweet, and caring uncle. Although I did not get to spend enough time as I would like with him, he always made time for me when we were down home visiting Grandma. We had a special bond for as long as I can remember and he was able to keep a secret. Amos had a great sense of humor and told wonderful stories about the family. I know that he is in a much happier place now, but I will still miss him greatly. Grandpa David and Uncle Amos are looking down on us and I am sure that they are smiling :)

“ Sorry to hear of Amos passing. I have been gone from Clarion area for many years but spent my young teenage years hanging with the Corsica group. Amos was a part of some of those days. He was always full of life and energy. RIP Amos. Prayers for your soul to find comfort in the arms of our Lord, our Savior, who died for our sins, so that we can have Salvation.

“ Amos was a kind, compassionate, caring man. I will never forget what he did for my brother Timmy when he was sick. And...I will never forget his truck ride to scatter Timmy's ashes up on his land. He made the day happier and memorable. Amos God Bless you.

“ My sweet baby brother Amos loved animals. He had a kind soul and wanted to help someone out when ever he could. He was just like his father. It's no way for anyone to have to leave this world but he did believe in Christ and we will see him again some day. Prayers to his family and the sweet grandson he thought so much of. Prayers to his siblings and his mother who loved him so. We had some great times together as kids growing up on the farm. My kids loved him so. When they were little Amos grew his hair long and they said he looked like a girl and they wanted to put jewelry and makeup on him to see what he looked like so he let them. I still have the picture. He loved kids and then had two beautiful girls of his own that he tried to help when ever he could. He loved his brother Ron, the two of them should have been twins, neither one of them could get along without the other. He loved his Mother and visited her in the nursing home every chance he could. She looked forward to his visits and will be very missed. RIP baby brother.

“ I knew Amos a while back during my early nursing. One winter as I was driving to his house for a nursing visit, I slid on the ice in his driveway, missed the garage, but hit his porch and bumped his truck. Not much damage and he was so nice to me about it. During the duration of my visits, Amos would talk about his family and dogs, other topics, and he always had a smile. RIP Amos.
