“ Our deepest heartfelt condolences to Wendy and Brad's family. Brad was a stand up, dependable, and trustworthy A.R.M.C. Brother. Everyone who knew him I know will miss him very much. I'd like to share a verse from a song I've written :

*"Life is such a strange journey and it's events don't make no sense.
There's no rhyme or reason, no explanation of common sense.
All the lives which touch us, makes us who we are.*

Even though life comes and goes, the memories stay within our hearts.

I wrote this song for a very dear friend of mine, taken away before his time.

I really will miss him but I know he's doing fine, up in heaven in the light."

God Bless Wendy your A.R.M.C. family will always be here for you and Brad

R.I.P. my fine Brother and will ride and have a cold beer on the other side.

Love you both.

“ I remember not even being a prospect with ARMC. Just hanging around at Music Expo and Brad would turn to me and say “You might want to go take care of that”. We (Me) seemed to have all the fun working security with the club.
