“ A few memories we have:
While camping, he would swat a fly, but not kill it. Then take a piece of my long hair and tie it to the fly. Once the fly comes too, you have a pet fly on a leash.
Once at the house we were flying kites. We had them so high and far away they crossed the interstate.
Camping again, the only time I've ever seen a case of Boones Farm. We drank so much of it that we had it in our cereal!

“ One of the best memories of your Dad involved fireworks! He, your Mom and you came to Michigan over the 4th of July holiday. On the way to Michigan, he stopped in OH to buy large fireworks. Needless to say, he had a “blast” shooting them off at our home in town. One flaming bottle rocket landed on our neighbors roof. We were new to the neighborhood so we were glad it went out pretty quickly without doing any damage!
He was also a lot of fun to camp with even before you were born. All of us had a huge tent city at the Dam, due to rain. We covered all of our tents with one big massive tarp. Fun times! He always had a sense of humor.
He used to love sleeping on his “nest”, a sleeping bag in the living room as he watched tv.
He loved to collect cookie jars.
He loved to ride his Harley!
He loved watching different animals in his field.
The very BEST thing your dad had to do with was having you! We are so blessed to have you as such a special part of our lives! We love you, Mack and Emmett so much. Love always and continued prayers, Uncle Terry and Aunt Ronda.
