“ *Rollie and family,
I am at a loss for words. I would bump into Cindy from time to time and each encounter I felt lifted by her presence. Her smile and genuine kindness is what made all of us love her. Cindy never thought as herself better than anyone else. My heart breaks for all of you and comforting words or actions are hard to find. For all of us who ever came in contact with her, Thank you God for she is a gift. How proud of her you all must be. I hold you all in my heart and prayers. God Bless You.*

“ Dear Rollie and Family,

You have my most sincere and deepest sympathy. Though I hadn't seen either of you in such a long time, I remember all the fun we all used to have "back in the day". I remember how sweet and funny Cindy was. Her sparkley eyes, beautiful big smile, and that infectious laugh of hers that made everyone smile. She was indeed a very special person, and will be missed by all that knew her.

May God be with you and your family,

“ I was very shocked and saddened to see the obituary on-line in the Derrick. Such a loss, so young. My condolences go out to Rollie and the family. In 1984, I photographed Cindy's and Rollie's wedding. They were so in love and she was a beautiful bride. I have lost touch with the family over the years since I moved a long time ago, but I have to say their wedding was one of the most memorable I photographed. I pray for God's blessing on the families at this time to comfort the sorrow you are feeling.

You, Shylo, Mason and your family have our most sincere and deepest sympathy. I just spoke with Cindy Thanksgiving week she was still smiling and her eyes sparkled. She was looking forward to the birth of her newest grandbaby. Cindy was a wonderful person and a great friend. She will be missed by the many lives she has touched. May God bless you and comfort you and may the many happy memories carry you through this time of sorrow.

“ Cindy will remain close to us in our hearts, her smile ever shining in our memories. She found such joy in the simple pleasures life had to offer. A blue sky, a warm fire, friends and family. We only knew her a short time but will remember her forever. May God Bless and Comfort all those she left behind.
