“ I have always admired Louise for the respect and self-esteem she had for herself and others. You can also include her love for animals, and but not least she has my mothers' name Louise. She is in a better place now, God bless.

What a shock to hear about Louise's death. I remember fun times when we were teenagers. She was a very caring person. I shall hold all her family in my prayers and regret that distance makes it impossible for me to be there for her service.
