

Daniel R Moore

February 26, 1957 - October 21, 2008

Daniel R. Moore, 51, of 38 Greenville Avenue, Clarion, passed away Tuesday, October 21, 2008 at his residence.

Born February 26, 1957, in Brookville, he was the son of J. Robert and Elaine D. Moore.

Mr. Moore graduated from Clarion High School in 1975 and Williamsport Community College in December 1978 with an associate degree in carpentry and building construction. Although he did general construction, he took great pride in his carpentry skills and enjoyed working on older homes. He looked forward to family gatherings and hunting and fishing with his wife, father, and other members of the Moore family. He was an avid Steelers and NASCAR Dale Jr. fan.

He was baptized in the United Methodist Church of Clarion and remained in the Protestant faith.

He married Terri Lynn Etzel on February 3, 2000, and she survives.

In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by his son, Zachary R. Moore, a student at the University of Pittsburgh, and his daughter, Danielle E. Delp and husband Jode of Hazen, and his granddaughter Alessa Elizabeth Delp. He is also survived by a sister, Lorna D. McClimans of Franklin and his nephew, Robert N. McClimans of Falling Waters, WV. Surviving also, are numerous aunts and uncles. He will be sadly missed by his close friend and neighbor, Mary Sue Lowman, with whom he shared his compassion for all animals.

He was preceded in death by both his maternal and paternal grandparents. Viewing will be from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday at the Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday in the funeral home with Rev. William A. Houben Jr. officiating.

Interment will be in the Clarion Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be made to the local PAWS organization, PO Box 804, Clarion, 16214, or to a charity of one's choice.

“ Dear Terri~

My heart goes out to you at this time of sadness. I know that Jesus cares and will comfort you knowing that one day we all we meet together in his presence and you will be reunited with all those you love.

Words rarely can express the feelings we wish to convey to one another when someone faces such a sudden loss.

I hope and pray that the Lord fills you with his love and kindness and strengthens you, giving you new direction and purpose to bring new hope and happiness to your life.

It is never easy going through a valley such as this, but as each day passes you will begin to climb a new hill and soon you will be on top again and be able to see a new beginning full of hope and friendship.

God bless you and keep you!

Sincerely,

“ Dan, May the Creator lead you to the peace that is where we find our strength to stand tall in times like these. It is easy to see the lives that you touched in your short time with all of us. You enriched my life as a young man and shared wisdom beyond your years. My life was better after I came to call you friend. I will always honor your legacy and family.

“ Terri.....I wish I lived closer to be with you during this terrible time of grieving,but know that you have been in my thoughts and prayers and will continue to be. If you need anything you have my email address and can contact me. If you need someone to talk to I can call you just let me know and I will. I would never intrude, but if you need me I am here for you. I pray your family will make it through this, but know it will take time and all of your friends will be here when you need us. We miss you and love you. I will check on you soon.

“ Terri, I am so sorry about your husband and I hope that he is in a better world, where angels sing, the sun shines and only love to fill the air. I'm sure he will be close to you, near when you need him, like my beloved grandmother who's presence I feel whenever I need her. I am also sorry about your dog, so many losses in such a short laps of time. Am here for you, thinking of you and praying for you so that you do not feel alone, but surrounded by the love of all who care about you. May Daniel, your husband rest in peace. xx

“ Dear Aunt Elaine, Uncle Bob, Lorna, Danielle, Zachy and Terry,

I am so sorry to hear about Dan. He was such a part of my childhood, a time when Danny and Lorna was one word. Memories way too numerous to write just now--but they're still so bright and alive in my mind. Crazy things we did at Grandma's and Aunt Elaine's. Tiger his cat. His black light posters I thought were so cool, "camping out" on the front porch....A part of my life has gone with Dan. His was too short. I wish I could have been with you for the funeral. I miss you all.

“ Dear Bob, Elaine and Lorna, I was shocked and saddened when I saw yesterday's Derrick. Danny was the earliest friend that I can remember. Though our paths crossed only a few times since we were 4-5 year-old neighbors on Wood Street, I'll always remember fondly the fun we used to have; climbing in the chestnut tree, exploring the "wilds" of Mrs. Lidstone's back yard and playing wiffleball with our Dads. I am so sorry for your loss, and my heartfelt condolences go out to you at this difficult time.

I remember how kind he always was to me, as I was such a shy child. He always took time to include me in what the older kids were doing. I also remember when I saw him last, how he took such pride in showing us some of the work he had done recently. I know he has left a lasting impression on many and his spirit and kindness will live on in his children. My prayers, love and condolences to all of you. “ Dearest Elaine, Bob, Terri, Danielle and little Adessa, Zach, Lorna and Rob: My heart aches for each of you. I am so very sad that Dan was taken from your lives far too soon. I wish I could be there with you physically. Please know that my thoughts, tears, and prayers are with you now and in difficult days to come. Some of my remembrances of Dan: the baby proudly riding beside his dad or grandpa on taxi runs; the inventive little boy who instigated most of the pillow fights, alligator hunts and other adventures when the cousins got together at his grandma's house; a vigorous young carpenter good at his job and proud of his work; a solicitous and caring grandson who "stopped by for coffee" every morning with his grandmother and always left her laughing. "Danny, we hardly knew ye.”
