“ I'm sending my deepest sympathies to Dave's siblings, his nephews, and his nieces. I have the fondest memories of the times that Dave and I shared in high school and college. Although we lost touch with each other, it was always great to bump into him after he moved back to the Clarion area. I often saw him while he was working at the university. We would chat and do a lot of laughing just like we did in our younger days. He was such a kind-hearted and very intelligent fellow. The times that we shared will be forever in my heart.
