“ Over the last couple of years Donna has shared many happy memories of her life as a wife, mother and pet Mom. Donna was very proud of her children, loved calls, flowers & visits and often said she missed when they were still at home. She was a good person, very genuine.

“ Dear Bill, I am sorry to read the news about the loss of Donna. I especially enjoyed the hospitable and spontaneous conversations we shared at Michelle's while we jammed to the Celtic tunes. One silver lining was the golden anniversary. Please know that I have been thinking of both of you. Warm regards, jennifer c.

“ *My memory to share, Donna’s first meeting Ruth:
I remember when Bill brought Donna home to meet the family, when he announced they were engaged. As they were leaving, Ruth said she was glad to meet her and hoped she’d come back again sometime. As we all laughed at Ruth, Donna very kindly smiled and said ok I will.*

“ Dear Bill, Bill and Christen, Tracy, Darrick and Payton, Susan and Kevin --

I'm so sorry for your loss. Although it's been years since I've visited with Donna I did keep track of her through FaceBook (and Tracy). What I remember most about Donna was her unflappable demeanor and good nature. I believe Donna was truly that person who "wouldn't hurt a fly." She was also a very brave woman who met many health challenges head-on and seemed to always look on the bright side. I know she will be sorely missed. Love, Gloria Knezovich
