

Douglas C Morris

January 1, 1919 - October 28, 2008

Douglas C. Morris, 89, of Fisher, passed away Tuesday, October 28, 2008 at the McKinley Health Center in Brookville.

Born January 1, 1919, in Little Rock, Kentucky, he was the son of William and Effie Morris.

Mr. Morris was married for 62 years to Dorothy L. Reimers.

He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the French and Belgium War.

He retired from Heckett Engineering in Tarentum.

Mr. Morris was a member of the Church of God in Butler.

He was an avid golfer and fisherman.

He is survived by his son, Douglas Louis Morris of Fisher; his daughter, Barbara Jean Macef, and husband, David, of Fisher; two grandchildren, David Michael Macef, and wife, Tonya Sue, of Summerville, and Alisha Marie Aaron, and husband, Luke, of Cranberry Township; two great grandchildren, David and Michael Macef of Summerville; and favorite pets and special friends, Tucker, Junior, and Brodie.

He was preceded in death by his parents, wife, and four brothers, Ray Morris, Irvin Morris, Harry Morris, and Louis Morris.

At the requests of the family, there will be no public visitation or service.

Cremation will take place at the R.V. Burns Crematorium, Inc. in Clarion.

The Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion is handling the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

MS

“ we on the 11-7 shift truley miss doug we spent many a night up with him laughing and joking around and we truley miss him alot. our prayers are with you the family. and even though we miss him we know he is in a much better place. god bless, and know you all are in our prayers.love Tammi,laurie R & laurie S.

memory support 11-7 shift - November 02, 2008 at 12:00 AM