“ Aunt Edna was a wonderful woman, they didn't come much nicer than she was. She fought a long hard battle, and then in the end, she went out on her own terms. My heart goes out to Bob and Joe as they continue in life without her. She won't be far from you, she will always be in your hearts and she and your father will both now be together looking down at you and keeping an eye on you from heaven..... Love ya!

“ I have known Edna and Jerry and Bob and Joe since the 1980's. Edna was a sweet kind and gentle lady. I spent several nights playing bingo with her. My mother Nina Wolbert and myself used to visit with Edna anytime we were in Marienville. She had such an angelic face and was willing to do anything for anyone if at all possible. She will be missed by many I am sure and my heart goes out to all of the family and friends who will be affected by her passing. God Bless all and thank you Edna for being part of my life.
