“ We remember the good times we shared together when we all attended the Free Methodist church. You were always a good friend. Emma always had a big laugh when the twins tried to trick me and always traded places after I figured out who was who. We will keep you in our prayers. Love, Pat and Bill

“ My sympathy goes out to Emma Jones' Family. I remember her well as an employee at the Clarion Hospital Housekeeping Department and her retirement in 1995. She was an excellent worker and I missed her. I occasionally met Emma and Joyce at Walmart and we had a good chat while waiting at check-out line. Rest In Peace, Emma.
