“ To Andy, Tristan and Dillon.. My heart aches for you as I do recall how She always spoke of the Love She had for the 3 of You... Her and I as I met her thru work clicked right from the start.. I hadn't got to see Her as of late, I am sure She was the same caring, witty person I met and did consider a friend.. Her Love of Wolves was one of our mutual Loves.. as well as dogs! I will miss knowing You are here physically, Erica but I know in spirit You will always be where Your heart is.. at home with "Your Boy's" May All of You find peace eventually with time

“ I will always remember Erica as someone I could talk to no matter what. I loved her attitude on life she was caring, and had the laid back attitude. I just talk to her about two weeks ago on Facebook and said how I missed her this year at the family reunion because I couldn't go. she said that we would make up for lost times. we always would laugh about a bumper sticker that I miss read one time and only Erica would know what I was talking about. I have a lot more to say about Erica but for now I will just say that I love you and rest in peace my dear friend. I will miss you. I send my love to Andy and the two boys.

“ Words cannot express my sadness and remorse over the death of Erica, a mother, daughter, wife, sister and friend. She was a good woman who loved her boys, her husband and her family. This is and was a sorrowful and disastrous end to a precious soul. May she finally have peace in the heavens above with her father and family alike. God bless her and her family.
