

Fae L. Thompson

October 28, 1939 - February 3, 2026

Fae L. Thompson, age 86, of Fairmount City, passed away peacefully Tuesday evening, February 3, 2026, in the comfort of her own home. She was born on October 28, 1939, in Franklin to the late Carl and Helen Irwin Grettler.

Fae married the love of her life, Robert D. Thompson, on August 14, 1962. They shared over fifty-nine years together until his passing on March 23, 2022.

In her early years, she worked as an elementary school teacher, then became a devoted homemaker and dedicated her life to her family.

Fae was an active member of the New Rehoboth-Greenville Presbyterian Church in Clarion, where she served as the church pianist and choir director and participated in the quilting group. She was also a member of the New Bethlehem Eastern Star Chapter, where she served as pianist and held various offices.

She is survived by her daughter, Heather Billotte and her husband, Joe, of Clarion; her son, Brian Thompson and his wife, Brenda, of West Virginia; seven grandchildren, Thomas Billotte of Crafton, Kristen Palmer and her husband, Adam, of Clarion, Heath Anthony and his fiancé, Shyann Mohney, of Clarion, and Riley, Kyra, Torri, and Zach Thompson, all of West Virginia; and five great-grandchildren, Kai, Konner, and Addalyn Anthony, Emberlyn Thompson, and Parker Palmer.

Fae is also survived by her sister, Helen Jane Mong of Florida, and brother,

Terry Grettler of Tennessee, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to all the caregivers for the excellent care and compassion they provided to Fae.

The Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion has the distinct honor of serving the family. The family will receive friends from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Saturday, February 7, 2026, at the New Rehoboth-Greenville Presbyterian Church, where funeral services will follow at 11 a.m. with Rev. James Robert Dietrich presiding.

Interment will take place beside her beloved husband in the Mount Zion Lutheran Cemetery in Callensburg.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Fae's honor to the New Rehoboth-Greenville Presbyterian Church, 1419 Rehobeth Church Road, Clarion, PA 16214.

“ I have known and loved Fae for what seems like forever. I meet her when she first came to New Rehobeth church. I remember her being pregnant with Heather. She was such a sweet speaking, kind soul. I remember quilting with her at the church and so many more things. She will be forever missed. My prayers are with her and her family.
