“ I'm so sorry to hear of George (Lee) passing. I only knew George for a couple years after he moved into Liberty Towers. I found George to be a truly caring and special man who gave his heart and trust to those he loved and cared about. He will be greatly missed at Liberty Towers and his memory will live on with his name being placed on our Memorial Plaque. God surely has another angel in heaven. Hugs to the family for their loss.

Lee, I remember well our days in school. The older I get the more those memories are held sacred. Rest in peace my friend.
