

George E. Parkinson

July 21, 1950 - April 2, 2024

George E. Parkinson, 73, of Limestone, passed away early Tuesday morning, April 2, 2024 at UPMC Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh.

He was born on July 21, 1950 in Bryn Mawr, PA; son of the late Francis Arthur and Mary Mitcheltree Parkinson.

George was a 1969 graduate of Radford High School. He then enlisted in the United States Navy, serving active duty. George was first stationed in Washington DC and was then transferred to Greece where he met his wife, Diane Dahlstrom, who was also in the Navy. They got married there on May 12, 1975. George and Diane then transferred to Puerto Rico, San Diego, CA, Stockton, CA, Guam and then back to Washington DC where they retired from the Navy. George then worked as a Security Specialist for the Federal Government for many years.

He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Clarion where he was also a member of the Knights of Columbus.

George loved working on his home, building many things. He also loved mowing his grass and working in the yard.

In addition to his wife, Diane, he is survived by his sons, Christopher Parkinson of Limestone and Jeffry Parkinson and his wife, Melissa, of Fisher and his grandchildren, Jorja and Jocelyn Parkinson, both of Fisher. George is also survived by his sisters, Rita Grube and her husband, John, of Columbia, PA and Patricia Finouli, who passed away the following day.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister, Dorothy Bernard.

The Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion is handling the arrangements.

Per George's request, there will be no public visitation.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Entombment will take place in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Mausoleum.
