“ I met Gib about eleven years ago at the Church of the Nazarene. I instantly liked Gib, he was so easy to be around and treated my family as if he had known them for ever. Gib, Anna and I would talk every Thursday night as we car pooled to a bible study. Gib and I in the front, Anna and Phyllis in the back.

Gib and I chatted about our time in the Army, we were both stationed in Alaska, so that was common ground for us. Gib always talked about hunting, fishing, camping, and summer trips to Canada with his family. He was always looking to get one last fishing trip in.

Gib spoke highly of his children and of his grand children, nieces and nephews. He was very proud of all of you. His love for Anna and the rest of his family was endless and he expressed this easily as we drove down memory lane on Thursday nights. Gib told me a few weeks ago that "All you have is your family and friends, and that is enough, I am so thankful for you all."

Gib was what a Husband, Father, Grand Father and Friend should be. Gib has impacted my life for the better, and I am glad to have had the opportunity to call him friend. I will miss our time together dearly.

My sympathy to the Slaugenhaupt family, you will remain in my prayers.

Sincerely,
Scott Fair and Family

“ So sorry for your loss. I have known Gib since I was a kid. He was such a nice guy and quite the kidder when I was young. Dad and I both thought a lot of him.

I know Gib had a tough time in the last few years, but was always in good humor, when I saw him. He was always a good person willing to help.
