“ I spend many happy mornings visiting with Glenna at Highland Oakes. I have met one daughter-in-law who told me how Glenna loved to cook for her family and would (like many older moms) refuse to sit and eat until she was sure everyone had what they wanted. Glenna reflected this caring person if I visited her in the am. She was happy, joking, and full of nice compliments. The afternoons found her a little less incline to visit and she would promptly tell me- "Go Away." Loved this little lady. Will miss my hospice visits with her.
