“ The six of us had to of kept her quite busy...always knowing our latest happenings, as we grew up...(had to of drove her a little crazy, too). Our little neighborhood has just been missing a little something since Helen moved to Liberty Towers. The conversations on the swing under the apple tree, the sound and smell of the old lawn boy and certainly her classic "yeahyes".

Helen will be always remembered by the Delaney Kids. (Matthew, Amy, Ann, Susanna, Mary and Katherine)

“ Oh what a special lady!! We will miss Helen so much; Ron will miss her everyday when at work at the Towers and I will miss her at Friday night bingo! We enjoyed getting to know her and were in total awe of her love of her family and friends. How truly fortunate we were that she touched our lives. May God bless and comfort her always and also the family she loved!
