“ Dad and I are saddened to hear of Jack's passing. What a wonderful friend he was to Dad. If only we could have been a fly on the wall to hear their daily discussions at McDonald's. I appreciated that Jack would call me if Dad didn't make their breakfast meetings. Beyond his gentle kindness and selflessness, we remember Jack for his impeccable grooming and attentive listening. We mourn with you, Joanie, Karla, Kristin, Rod, and Randy and we are praying for God's divine power to comfort you and bring you peace.....Dick Williams and Tracy Williams Schliep

“ So sorry for the family's loss of this wonderful man. Over the years as we watched our sons and then our grandsons play sports, our paths crossed many times. He was one of a kind. God blessed him and he blessed the world around him. We ask God to give his family comfort and peace in the sorrowful time.
