

Jack Lawrence Hall

December 5, 2025 - December 5, 2025

Jack Lawrence “Lil Bear” Hall was born and called back into God’s arms on Friday, December 5, 2025. He was the son of Jesse Lawrence Hall and Tammy Lynn Walters. Jack was only on this earth for a short time, but he fought hard. “Some infinities are bigger than other infinities,” and we will be forever grateful for our little infinity with baby Jack. As we navigate the rest of our lives, he will be with us in everything we do. Not only will we reminisce about him, but we will see him running and playing in all of our future journeys and dreams. He will forever be with us. In addition to his loving parents, Jack will be deeply missed by his best big brother, Channing Ragon; maternal grandparents, LeRoy and Lesa Walters; paternal grandparents, Tim Hall (Debbie Harrison) and Stacy Hall (Jack Brennen); and his aunts, uncles, and cousins, Joseph Walters and his daughters, Dawn and Amelia, Austin Hall and his wife, Amber, Jena Hawk, her husband, Zach, and their daughters, Holly and Violet, and Trista Fisher, her husband, Craig, and their children, Shealynn, Braeden, Reese, Teagen, and Quinton; along with numerous other aunts, uncles, and cousins. The Robert V. Burns Funeral Home has the distinct honor of serving the family. A memorial service will be held at a later date. Cremation care has been entrusted to the RV Burns Crematorium, Inc.

Dear Jess And Tammy, I took a moment this morning to think of Jack. I know he will be one of Gods strongest angels. He will always keep you two safe. I am sorry to miss all the happiness he would have brought to you both. He will be watching over Tammy and you. He will never be far from you and forever loved. Take care of each other. Aunt Kas
