“ Millie and Steve, I am so sorry to hear of Jed's illness and passing. My son's and I have fond memories of Jed and Zeke as just little wee guys over at the bowling alley on Saturday mornings. They were little pistols, and just about as cute as anything you'd ever see. It was always a joy to see them, and thinking back on those happier times always brings a smile. Your family has been through so much. I'm sorry. Warm thoughts and gentle hugs to all of you at this difficult time.

“ I will always remember Jed as the little blond haired boy playing with his brother Zeke in their fence when they lived in Strattanville. I have not seen them in a few years, but will remember the laughter of them running and playing. I am so sorry Millie and Steve that you two have to do this again, Prayers for comfort for you two , and all Jed's brothers and his sister. Today Jed got to meet his brother Zach and received a pain free new body. God be with you all.
