“ I remember hanging out with Jeff at Piney Meadows park during the summers and playing nickle dime poker with him. He was very good at it. He was a good guy and I have only good memories of him winning my money.

My deepest sympathies to his family and loved ones. He will be missed.

“ Wendy,
Jeff is already deeply missed. He had a way of capturing the boys attention when he talked to them about hunting and fishing, in a way that even I couldn't. We all admire you and Jeff very much.
Love, Randy, Heidi and the boys
