“ I will forever love you, Jeff. I still can't believe you're gone. Thank you for the memories and for being there through so many moments in my life. You will always be loved and deeply missed.

I'll never forget the times you and Jr. walked me home through Hasson Park, the nights on Central Ave., skipping school, camping trips, and running through the woods during that tornado warning. Or trying to beat me at Tony Hawk on the PlayStation (I still say you never did!).

Too many memories to count. I will always love you and your family.

Rest now. We'll catch up again someday.
