“ We were so sorry to hear of Joel's passing. Although we are able to express our condolences to Veronica and Vanessa in a more personal way, we especially would like to express our deepest sympathies to Joels family, especially Cecil and Linda. We cannot imagine the grief you have endured in the recent past. We have and will continue to keep you in our prayers through this difficult time.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I was an employee of Campus Shoe Store while in school and became a partner of Cecil's at Brody's Shoes in Oil City. I remember Jody as a young boy when they lived in Shippenville. I am also sorry to hear of the passing of Terry who I remember as a skinny blonde kid back in the 60's. I would sure like to reconnect with Cecil and Linda as I had heard rumors that they were both deceased. I am so sorry that I cannot make it for viewing as I am currently in North Carolina visiting our children. I also remember being in Jaycees with Cecil and Bob Burns. My phone number is 814-673-9140 or contact me at my e-mail address.
Sincerely, Bill Rosenberger
