I had last talked to John in early June 2024, and he wasn't doing well, had just gotten out of the hospital. But I hoped John was going to recuperate as best as possible. I just found out a few minutes ago he passed because I had called his cell number first, and it said it wasn't in service and the mailbox was full. So then I call the house number, and his Mom had to break the news to me. I had no idea he had been gone since June. My condolences, albeit way after the fact, and I appreciate John's friendship over the years. He was there to support me when I needed it, and reminded me about still enjoying life when I can have the chance/should make the chance happen. Now John can ride his Ultra all day long up in heaven. Love you man.
