“ I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of such an amazing person. I only knew Michael a short few months but he brought light back into my life after loosing my fiance in March of this year. He showed me a light that I thought was lost forever. He was so patient and taught me how to become that too. He brought happiness and most importantly laughter back into my life. I don't remember the last I had honest belly hurting laughs. He brought hope back to me and showed me that you need to push forward and let nothing hold you back. He brought life back into me which I thought was gone forever and I'm forever grateful for that. I'm using all that he showed me after loosing the love of my life to get through this because he wouldn't want it any other way. I'm sorry that this has happened again to this family. They didn't deserve any of this. All I can say now is Jonathan and his big brother are reunited now and I know they are keeping close watch on all of you guys.
