

Joseph R. Fenstermaker

December 13, 1973 - June 1, 2026

Joseph R. Fenstermaker, age 52, of Clarion, passed away peacefully on June 1, 2026, in the comfort of his home due to complications from a sudden illness.

He was born on December 13, 1973, in Brookville; son of Kathy (Johnson) Painter and her late husband, Dennis, and Richard Fenstermaker and his wife, Debra.

Joe and his wife, Marcie (Kolhagen) Fenstermaker, built a beautiful home and family in Clarion that Joe was proud to care for during their thirty years together. He was most proud of their beautiful daughter, Avery, who shares his passion for Pittsburgh sports and a wonderful sense of humor.

Joe worked for over thirty years as a skilled craftsman, building custom countertops for the family business. When he wasn't working, Joe was likely playing golf at Pinecrest Country Club in Brookville or attending one of Avery's softball games. He had a presence and heart even larger than his build. His smiles and stories will be dearly missed by his friends and family, including his little "sis," Jamie (Fenstermaker) Bowers.

Family and friends will be received from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday, June 4, 2026, at the Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion. Cremation care has been entrusted to the RV Burns Crematorium, Inc.
