“ We finally found the trail of our cousins, though it was not what we were hoping for. I know Joey is at peace and with his brothers. My condolences and prayers. Will light a candle at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City for all the brothers. Again my condolences and feel free to contact me. Billy

“ I met Joe in Clarion, and when we talked I found out in the 1960s he not only lived across the street from me in Manhattan, NYC but we went to the Tap-o-Keg, a bar on 77th around the corner. He was a kind man, I pray he RIP Chuck in Lucinda

“ I'm sorry to hear about Joe's passing. Even though expected, still too soon. I took care of him this last admission at UPMC NW and had several long and good talks with him about the Lord! He was a blessing and I'll be looking for him when I enter the gates of heaven! God Bless, Steph
