

Joy Eck Yetman

October 13, 1959 - October 12, 2010

Joy Eck Yetman, 50, of Strattanville, formerly of North Collins, NY, died Tuesday, October 12, 2010, after a lengthily illness with lupus at Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh.

Born October 13, 1959, in Bradford, she was the daughter of Gerald D. Eck and Pauline Anne Derrick Eck.

She was a 1977 graduate of Bradford Area High School and also ECC Community College and Buffalo State studying psychology.

On February 12, 2000, she married Timothy J. Yetman. He preceded her in death in November 2000.

She was of the Protestant faith.

Mrs. Yetman lived and loved her animals, her Rottweiler, Jewel, and African Gray Parrot, Cowboy. She enjoyed riding her horses on trail rides.

She is survived by a sister, Janice Shirey and brother-in-law, Jack; her friend, Robert Bednarz and his children, Patrick and Chelsea, step grandchildren, T.J. Yetman and Cassandra Yetman.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents and brother, Jeffrey P. Eck.

There will be no visitation. A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 23, 2010, at the Bradford East End Presbyterian Church with Rev. Max Miller, pastor, officiating.

Memorials contributions may be made to the ASPCA or to the Lupus

Foundation.

“ I, as well as her family and friends will miss her very much. She was funny, and smart and a very loving person. I think of her often. I didn't know this was here or I would of been on sooner. RIP Joy, you'll have a place in all our hearts.

“ Words can not comfort you Jan or me at this time. Joy will be missed the only comfort there is that she is no longer in any pain and can truly be a peace which she so deserved from all the tribulations she went through. I loved her like the sister I never had. Your family was my second family. All my Love, Martha Lund Zenner & John Zenner
