

Judith A. Allaman

July 28, 1943 - November 15, 2022

Judith A. Allaman, 79, of Clarion, passed away on Tuesday, November 15, 2022 at the Shippenville Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center.

She was born on July 28, 1943 in Oil City; daughter of the late Leland and Susan Taylor Allaman of Shippenville.

Judy worked numerous jobs throughout her life including: the former Yount's Tractor Sales and Charles Tool & Supply, both of Shippenville, the former Laughlin-Frees Motors and Zacherl Motors, both of Clarion, the former Frampton Trucking of Frogtown, and retired as Secretary/Treasurer for the LEF&C Railroad Company.

She was a member of the former Nevin Memorial United Church of Christ in Frogtown and she was also a former member of the Grace Lutheran Church in Clarion.

Judy enjoyed putting puzzles together and playing cards and bingo.

She is survived by her friends and extended family, Patty Strong and Barry Downs, of New Bethlehem, Art and Helen Frampton of Sligo, Lesha Weaver of Clarion, and her daughter, Haley Weaver of California, and Artie Frampton, Jr. and his companion, Karen, of Sligo; along with several cousins.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, November 22, 2022 at the Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion with Rev. Harold O. Jacobson, pastor of the Grace Lutheran Church in Clarion, presiding.

Interment will take place at the Mount Zion Cemetery in Shippenville.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Judy's passing. Judy was a wonderful, helpful, giving lady. I met Judy while managing Liberty Towers. While Judy was a resident, she was involved and assisting in any activities held at the Towers as well as being the Treasurer of the Liberty Towers Resident Association until her health started to decline. Judy's will be honored with her name being placed on our Memorial Plaque in the entry way of Liberty Towers. God surely has another angel in heaven. Robin Truitt
