“ Oh Grandma, you sure looked so beautiful and at peace yesterday!!! I'm clinging to the fact that you've seen the face of Jesus and have been reunited with Pup & Uncle Ronnie. Your heavenly welcoming committee was surely one for the record books with all the amazing family and friends there to greet you. I was blessed to have you as my grandma for 43 years. You taught me so much and I have so many memories to cherish. Cooper hasn't stopped talking about his Gigi. He knows you're in Heaven, and is wondering if you've seen his Sissy Dog. As with Pup, there will not be a day that goes by that we don't think of you and speak your name. Rest easy, you've earned it. We love and miss you so much!!! xoxo

“ To the Grimm Family: I knew Judy from her time working with me at the old Clarion Hospital facility on South 7th Avenue Clarion, PA. I helped take care of Ron and knew Dottie and her husband, Randy also over that time frame. Once in a while Judy and I did facebook messaging. You all have my sympathy. I will miss her. RIP, dear Judy. Sincerely, Linda Steiner-Mander, RN, BSN, MHSA
