“ I only knew Ken for a couple years after he moved into Liberty Towers. I found Ken to be a truly caring and special man. He will be greatly missed at Liberty Towers and his memory will live on with his name being placed on our Memorial Plaque. God surely has another angel in heaven. Hugs to the family for their loss.

I have been trying to find my dad for awhile now and i had always been asking and wondering why no one knew where he was or just didnt want to tell me im Todd Ferrara Rena Ferrara son I dont understand why my so called brothers and sister never wanted to meet anyway i miss my dad and he may not have been in my life alot but the short 2 years i was staying with dad in punxy he taught me alot how to ride a four-wheeler a 97 blaster, how to shot every gun u can name, and how to drink natty ice like a boss and shot pool better then anyone. So for the time he was there he was a dad and a father and i wish i couldve told him that. i wish someone could have told me how to find him. Im so hurt and i wanted to just say high one more time. I wish my family i never met would call me or read this. Lifes to short and i wanna meet my brothers and sisters or just sister how ever many are out there if they read this call me 948-210-9443
