“Wow. After you moved away Kev we lost touch. I wondered for several years where you were and how you were doing. I met Angie for the 1st time in 15 years and she told me. I still can't comprehend the fact that you are gone. When I heard my heart sank and I asked God why he had to take you away. I wished now I would have tried that much harder to find you cause now I will never get that chance to say hello again. Man this is hard. I was lucky enough to be a part of your life for many years and you gave me some amazing memories so I have to use those to carry on in my journey in life knowing you are there at the fishing hole trying to catch your tackle floating down the creek soaked and freezing waiting for us to catch up. Tell Jerry and Patty hello and we miss you all so very much. Angie, Dave, Susie, Misty, Burt and the Rest of the family I thought the other day when I met Angie for the 1st time in a long while my prayers had been answered and I would get to see my buddy again. No more searching and wondering I was so happy until she gave me the news. I am so sorry we lost touch and I wasn't there to say goodbye to Kevin. I will never forget him and will never forget you all either. I am so sorry to hear about him and hope that now that we have made contact again we can stay in touch. God Bless all of you and So Long Kevin until next time.
