“ Dear Frank, Marcy, Frankie, Virge, Doug, & Scott,
First, you all you have our deepest sympathy. To Frank, you had a great wife. She did everything for you all her life. To the kids, she loved you with her whole being. Her life was you guys.
Linda was a very strong, quiet, person. We know that she had a smile on her face and did not feel good. She was a trooper. She probably would like to have said a lot but kept it to herself.
You kids did such a good job at taking care of her and being with her. She can be so proud of everyone of you.
So now she is at peace and no more pain and she set a very good example for all of you. So take care of yourselves and Frank and we love you lots.
