

Lois L. Himes

December 23, 1940 - November 8, 2011

Lois L. Himes, 70, of 200 Oak Avenue, Seminole, formerly of Limestone area, passed away unexpectedly Tuesday morning, November 8, 2011, at her home.

Born December 23, 1940, in Putneyville; she was the daughter of the late John G. Milliron and Edith M. Rupp Weaver of Limestone.

She was a graduate of C-L High School.

Mrs. Himes worked as a caregiver for U.C.I.P. of Clarion.

She enjoyed her grandchildren, visiting with her friends and having lunch with them at McDonald's and Wendy's, and loved her dog, Nina.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by three children, Terri Stepulla and her husband, Jeff, of New Bethlehem; Tracy Himes of Clarion; and Brian Himes of West Kittanning; four grandchildren, Alicia Crissman and her husband, Pat, of Seminole; Ashley Stepulla of Seminole; Travis Stepulla of Seminole; and Hunter Himes of Clarion; a great grandson, Landon Stepulla of Seminole; and two step-great grandchildren, Hailey and Ryan Crissman of Ford City.

Also surviving are four sisters, Shirley Orcutt and her husband, Barry, of Corsica; Verna Lee Foringer and her husband, Richard, of New Bethlehem; Esther Mae Villella and her husband, Tony, of Punxsutawney; and Betty Eshbaugh and her husband, Dave, of Summerville.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, November 11, 2011, at the Robert V. Burns Funeral Home, 638 Wood Street, Clarion, with Rev. Harold O. Jacobson, pastor of the Grace Lutheran Church in Clarion, officiating. Interment will be held in the Cedarview Memorial Park in Strattanville.

“ Lois has been a friend nd co-worker for many years and I enjoyed each time that I was able to work or socialize with her. She had an unmistakable and infectious laugh that brought joy to everyone. Her pride in her family shone through and she was a truly good person and friend. I am sure that she will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her as I know I will miss her deeply. My deepest sympathy.
