

Lori A. Lutz

November 21, 1969 - September 2, 2024

Lori Ann Lutz, 54, of Shippenville, passed away peacefully on Monday, September 2, 2024 in the comfort of her own home following a short, but courageous battle with cancer.

She was born on November 21, 1969 in Clarion; daughter of Howard “RT” Biehl of Clarion and Marsha Kay Barnes of Knox.

Lori was a 1988 graduate of Keystone High School.

She married John W. Lutz on September 14, 2017, who survives.

Lori worked at Dollar General in Shippenville and was Catholic by faith.

She enjoyed fishing and crocheting, but most importantly, Lori loved spending time with her family and her dog, Bailey.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her children, Zachary Bishop of Shippenville, Jennifer Bishop of Clarion, and Ben Bishop of Indiana State; 2 grandchildren, Brittany Dunkle of Clarion and Timothy Lutz of Shippenville; and her close relatives, Dan “Gizmo” Shuffesky and Mary King, both of Shippenville.

Lori is also survived by her brothers, Rus Biehl, Gary Biehl, and Christian Biehl and her sisters, Kira Biehl, Wendy Taylor, and Melanie Taylor; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Howard and Ellis Biehl; her maternal grandparents, George and Martha Barnes; 2 daughters, Cassie Lynn Biehl and Jennifer Rose Biehl; a brother, Keith Biehl; and her father-in-law, Raymond Lutz.

The Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion is handling the arrangements. Per Lori's request, there will be no public visitation and all services will be private.

“ I don't ever remember Lori not smiling or laughing about something. I haven't seen her since we graduated from high school but from her picture I can see she never changed. Prayers to her family and friends.
