“ My mother, Dorothy Bargar, is going to miss Ms. Marge so much. They met in Florida while working at Walmart and struck up a friendship that has lasted over the years even though they were miles apart the last few years. They would spend hours talking on the phone catching up with each other and lately seems as though were having nightly calls. I met Ms. Marge while visiting my mom in Florida at Eustis Sands as Ms. Marge lived next door and they shared a porch and a lot of nights sat out with a cup of coffee, sometimes during the day hosting small cookouts for the neighbors. Everyone was always stopping by to chat when they saw them sitting outside. Ms. Marge was a wonderful woman and always had a smile on her face. I don't think she met a stranger. She enjoyed helping others and worry about them. She was such a nice person and is going to be greatly missed.
