“ Mike was an amazing husband, father, and grandfather. I remember when I first met Mike it was before I even met Trey, Mike was awesome and really fun to talk to. I then met Trey and we dated... I got to know Mike more, Mike would do anything to support his wife and his children, and always give into them when Pam would say no. Everyone knew that they could go to Pam and Mike for anything and they'd be there to lend a helping hand. When EmmaLeigh was born she was papa's girl. Mike loved her so much as she loved and still loves him. She'll never forget Mike and his caring and fun times spent with her. And I as well will never forget Mike and his love for his family and friends, and his humor. Pam, Be strong Mike would want you to, and he's watching you and in his own way trying to help you deal with this unexpected tragedy. Trey.... I know we have problems but your dad loved you so much and you were his baby boy... if your mom ever told you no he'd give in to you in a heart beat. Be strong for your mom and kids. But take the time to grieve and heal for your dad. He is/was very special and will be sadly and greatly missed. If there is anything that I or EmmaLeigh can do please let us know. I Wish I could take away the pain but I can't. But I can offer my hand in any help you need. We'll always remember Mike for the humor, good times, and he'll always be looking down upon the family and always be there to guide you and help you heal.
