“ Myrtle was the nicest most Godly woman out of all my friends parents. Susan was a dear friend and classmate of mine and I miss her. I will always remember nights spent at Sue's home and I always enjoyed being felt welcome in Myrtle & Clair's home - two very special people. Rest in peace Myrtle - looking forward to meeting you again in our Heavenly Fathers home.
Love, Sandie Ferguson

“ Irwin Zitzelberger
Aunt Myrtle had a great sense of humor and a love of life. We will always remember how her eyes would lite up talking about her tractor and mowing the lawn. It was even better to see her driving the tractor like she was on a race track. She could really whip that tractor around.
When we came from Texas for a visit she always had coffee & desert for us. She was a great cook and helped teach the people at the Grange Hall how to make the Best Home Made Noodles. I still use her pickle recipe that she gave me. We always had to sit out on her porch that over looked her flowers and the woods and at times watch deer eating in her yard.
Aunt Myrtle will be missed.....Irwin

“ To GrandMa

First off I would like to say I Love You. Thank you for giving me a wonderful Father. Thank you for giving me a great family to grow up with. Thank you for making the trips with GrandPa to watch me play sports even though I wasn't really good at any of them it still meant a lot. Thank you for having an endless supply of Juicy fruit gum not sure how but you always seemed to have it. Thank you for packing our hunting lunches with meatloaf sandwiches and peanut butter crackers. Thank you for making my favorite meals when we would get back home NO bake "peek" chicken and beef and noodles. Thank you for the letters while I was at boot camp and needed encouragement. Thank you for being such a strong woman who has been put through more trying time than anyone else that I know. Thank you for just being there to talk to. I'm sorry for not making that last phone call that I would have made to you I just thought I would be able to do it "tomorrow" and would have plenty of time to do it sadly I ran out of time. I Love You and will miss you.

Love, Kevin

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Please find comfort in God's sure purpose to restore our loved ones to life by means of a resurrection as set forth in the Bible. (Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29) "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, he saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) May these thoughts bring you a measure of comfort at this difficult time.

“ She was always happy to see me whenever I visited, which has been many years, but her love was always there through it all. Susan , Michael and Larry welcomed her with open arms I'm sure , as she was one of the best mothers any children could ever want. It was an honor to call her my aunt. rest in everlasting peace and know that your love survives.....love,Rita
