“ I have know Joyce since High School. She was one of the most beautiful girls inside and out. I loved her. She was always friendly to everyone and always had a smile for all. I left PA after High School, but every time I came home to visit my large family I had to go see Joyce. She and Chuck made me and my husband Joe welcome in her home. She will be missed on earth, but I know she is rejoicing in heaven and in no pain. I will be unable to travel home to celebrate her homecoming, but be sure I will be there in spirit. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.
