“ Patti,

Mom and I are going to miss our lunch dates.

Mom loved you like a daughter and I like a sister.

Cute story: when mom was ‘trying’ to teach Patti to crochet (recently) I’d come back to the room and they would BOTH be snoozing. 😭

Thank you Patti, for being there on the days at the end of Brenda’s life... when you sat with her and held her hand for hours, so that I could get stuff done or rest.

And thank you for helping me clean out their house after Brenda died and I had to move mom in with us. It was hard work and I kept asking you to stop and take a break but you were so darn stubborn and kept helping.

I know I thanked you then but I thank you now, because I want others to know how caring you were and how important you were in my life.

You’ll be missed terribly, here on earth. But at the same time I’m happy that you have so many loved ones in Heaven that welcomed you home. Love ya and see you again. ❤️🙏

“ Patti,

I love you so much and will miss your presence greatly. I will forever be grateful to you and Billy for accepting me into your family with open arms. You were always one of mine and Sophie’s biggest supporters and I will never forget that. My second mom, I will love and miss you forever and always. Rest in peace, angel.

“ Mom,

Thank you for everything you did for me in my life and everything you stood for. You had such a hard and unfair life and despite that you were so aggressively kind and thoughtful to the people in your life. Despite the hardships and trauma you went through at the hands of your own family, you made the decision every day to never treat me the way you had been treated all your life. You broke the cycle of abuse and were the most loving, protective, and supportive mom I could have ever asked for. You sacrificed so much in your life to make sure that I was protected and in a good environment. I miss the quirks and habits that you used to have. The days feel empty now without your goodnight calls and texts. Thank you for immediately welcoming Gina into our family from day 1 and for always seeing her as your daughter too. I'm relieved that you can now rest and see Grandad, Grandpa, and Dyllan again. I love you to the moon and back.

“ Terese, I'm so empty and heartbroken. Your pain is finally gone. I can't remember time without you. The memories of our years together and having our "baby girl" become such the woman she is, will never be forgotten. You were the ultimate protector and loved hard and for that, I'm forever grateful. I love YOU to the moon and back and I WILL see you again with !no pain and no crying. I love you!
