“ I will ALWAYS remember Patty because of her kind and altruistic personality. One time, I was on my way to Mass, and she offered me a ride no less than a sixteenth of a mile from the entrance! I did not need a ride for a half-block distance yet I graciously accepted for the simple reason that I wanted to meet her and enjoy a chat.
Another reason I was fond of Patty was her radiance, an obvious demonstration of her deep faith. She also helped many people, a true example of "agape."
