“ Peg was a special person. She was a person who would help anyone that needed help. Her upbeat positive attitude was contagious to whoever was around her. She was a person that could see your soul. Her challenging conversations and knowledge of the Bible is what I will miss the most. She not only knew the Bible but that is the life that she lived. Peg was my resource person. She was my rock and grounded me. (Big task) The many road trips that we shared and experiences on them will never be forgotten. Peg was my true friend.
I chose daises because I remember my mother saying daises never tell and when you told Peg something she never told. Also daises are for love. Peg was LOVE!
