“ I am so sad to hear of your passing. I moved away so long ago and I don't get back much. The last time I saw you in person was at a class of '78 reunion as I was leaving and I wish we'd had a chance to talk. At least we did get to message on Facebook where I saw pics of your beautiful girls. My heart goes out to them and you are missed by all of us good friend. Remember the cat you helped me name after you, she was a cutie, Trixie, she's waiting for you at the bridge. You were a great friend to all.

“ I send my deepest sympathy to your family on the passing of Trix. My first memories of him is in high school in choir. He was two yrs ahead of me, but we both had common friends and made many good memories. He took me to his senior prom and we had a lot of laughs and a great time. I would end up at the same functions as Trix and we would continue our laughter and friendship. I did lose touch with him in the past years, but never forgot what good times we did have in the past. It is with great sadness, that he will be missed, but.... I wish him peace now, that he has passed to a better place with no sickness or pain.

“ You were one amazing guy Gilly! I'll never forget all the great crazy memories we made! I most certainly won't ever meet another "Gilly"! My phone will no longer vibrate at 3:00 a.m. just so you can wake me up and tell me to go back to bed. I'll finally be able to keep the same cooler for more than a week without it mysteriously floating into your truck. My cousin won't have to roll you off of his sleeping bag this year at trout camp because you needed his for a mattress. Lol. Truth is, I'd give up every cooler forever and gladly give you my sleeping bag at camp if I could have one more night around the fire with you. You'll never know just how much you meant to every single person that had the pleasure to know you. Rest easy ol boy. We love you Gillard! I hope heaven has karaoke! With a heavy heart and tears in my eyes, I have to say Good bye. Good bye to one of the greatest people I've ever known. We'll love and miss you forever brother!
