“ I met Ricci at work about 4.5 years ago. Having met so many new people at the same time, I kept calling her Kris for a few weeks. Ricci said it is strange that you call me Kris, I have a sister Kris. So I ask her her maiden name and when she said Haines I knew that I went to school at Clarion with Kris and we were on the same bus to Miola. I have seen Ricci many mornings at work. She was a gem, she always so nice, kind, and generous to everyone always saying good morning and taking a minute to talk to people. I believe Ricci's beautiful attributes will live on through their daughters Audrey and Caitlin as they become young lady's. At Christmas I would ask Ricci what her daughters wanted for Christmas and she would tell me. She also mentioned of the girls going sled ridding. Ricci so loved her girls and her entire family. I never ask Ricci her husbands name, when I found out it was Bobby Arron I knew him as well. It truly is a really small world. My sister Karen Lewis is a close friend of Bobby's parents Ronda and Don (Stub). My heart is saddened for Bobby, Audrey, Catlin, sister Kris, and all of the family members. I know she was a wonderful mother and wife. I told my mother if anyone is in heaven Ricci is sure to be there because I have never met some one so nice that cared so much about other people. I am so glad I met Ricci, she was a beautiful person inside and out, she had enough personality for a 100 people. I am a better person having known Ricci. My heart is saddened by her loss and for all of her family especially Bobby, Audrey, Catlin, Donna, Randy, and Kris.

“ I grew up knowing of Ricci bc she was in my bro Eli's class of '97. I remember going to my BFF's Bethann's 'home' basketball games and Ricci being on the team. She was a really nice girl.
