“ My mom told me of Bobby's accident and passing. I worked with Bobby when we were 15, or so in Cook Forest's YCC program. It was a great job for a bunch of kids - none of us knew each other, but by the end of that summer we were all great friends. Bobby was a happy and fun teenager and it surely sounds like he was a happy and fun man, husband, father and co-worker. My memories and thoughts are with you all, so sorry for your loss.

Words cannot convey the depth of grief or the expression of sympathy to you and your family. Please know that God catches EVERY tear you cry...He will comfort you with those wonderful memories of your dad and husband; He will comfort you through your friends and family; He will comfort you through the beauty of nature and the words of a song. God will comfort you in ways only you will see because He knows exactly what you need and He understands what it is like to lose Someone. “ Sharon,

I was very saddened to hear of Bob's passing Thursday evening. He was always a nice guy, smiling, laughing having a good time, anytime I was around him. Such a loss for all his friends and especially for the Family.

Sharon, you and your children have my deepest sympathy and understanding at this terrible loss. Life is but the blink of an eye and we all have had loved ones who have shown us that with their 'moving on' to a better place.

Perhaps some how all of us learn from these losses and can go on understanding we only have each other for a very short time. I hope you are able to find comforting moments in your faith that all of this is for a reason and all of the burden of your heavy hearts can be put on Jesus, all of it is His burden, His purpose, His sacrifice.

I am sorry that I will be unable to visit the funeral home or the service on Tuesday.

I know you will have lots of friends and family visit and be close with you, find comfort in knowing so many will be there for you to lean on and share your sorrow and also the joys of Bob's life.

I wish the best for you not only now in this time of grieving but in the future as life goes on, day by day, find peace, and happiness and fulfillment having had Bob in your life.

God bless you and your family.

“ There will always be a vacant spot in the shop for Bob dressed in his black nylon shorts and sandals. I will treasure the memory of him sitting at Sharon's desk with Molly in his lap teasing me. I always interrupted him saying, " Bob, you have the best hair," and he would smile that endearing smile . He will be missed!
