May 10, 1947 - March 5, 2025

Robin D. Heasley, 77, formerly of Leeper, passed away on Wednesday, March 5, 2025 at Highland Oaks at Water Run in Clarion.

She was born on May 10, 1947 in Kane to the late Otis Davenport and Joan Hilyer Antonucci. Robin was a graduate of East Forest High School.

She married the love of her life, J. Ronald "Ronnie" Heasley, on July 2, 1966 at Saint Mary Catholic Church in Crown, who preceded her in death on May 23, 2020.

Robin was a feisty redhead who made the best apple pie and jello salads and as she would say "Jello is a salad, not a dessert!" She enjoyed playing Bingo and even met her husband while playing Bingo at the Farmington Township Fire Hall. Robin loved casino trips, car rides, chocolate and eating out. She previously enjoyed volunteering with her husband, working a booth at the annual Farmington Township Fire Department Chicken BBQ and selling lottery calendars for Immaculate Conception Catholic School and the Knights of Columbus. She also enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren.

Robin is survived by her children, Kimberly Kroh and her husband, Clayton, of Clarion and Ronald Heasley and his wife, Roxann, of Tionesta; her grandchildren, Eyrn Heasley, Brandan Heasley, and Jordon Gordon and her husband, Brendan; her sisters-in-law, Kay Seigworth and Eileen Allio and her husband, John; and numerous nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her brother, Otey Lynn.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to the staff of Highland Oaks and AseraCare Hospice for the kindness, care and compassion they provided. They have truly become like family.

Family and friends will be received from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Monday, March 10, 2025 at the Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion. Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 1 p.m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Clarion with Rev. Monty Sayers presiding.
