

Ronald R. Grimm Sr.

May 7, 1937 - August 18, 2010

Ronald R. Grimm Sr., 73, of Knox, died Wednesday, August 18, 2010, at the UPMC Northwest Hospital in Seneca.

Born May 7, 1937, in Cullsville, he was the son of William Francis and Lottie Blanche Sayers Grimm.

He was married on October 18, 1958 to the former Judy P. Murphy, who survives.

In 1993, Ronald retired from the C&K Coal Company where he worked as a dozer operator for 18 years.

He was a member at the Liberty Street Church of God in Clarion.

Ronald enjoyed woodworking, reading, hunting, and spending time with his family, friends, grandchildren, and granddogs. He was known to his grandchildren as "Puppy." He was a Penn State and Steelers fan. Ronald also enjoyed watching John Wayne movies and M.A.S.H. He loved helping other people and sharing his talents.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two children, Dottie Sue Reddinger and her husband, Randy, of Shippenville; and Patty Grafton and her husband, Michael, of Worthington; grandchildren, Randy Reddinger Jr. of Fryburg; Shelley, Amy, and Christopher Reddinger of Shippenville; and Matthew, Brennan, and Lucas Grafton of Worthington; daughter-in-law, Lori Kitchen of Miola; special cousin, Betsy Furlong; and brother-in-law, Robert L. Grimm. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one sister, Helen Grimm; one brother, Robert W. Grimm; and one son, Ronald R. Grimm Jr.

Family will receive friends from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. on Friday, August 20, 2010, at the Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, August 21, 2010, in the funeral home with Rev. Bruce Wilson, pastor of the Liberty Street Church of God, officiating.

Interment will be held in the Churchville Cemetery in Curllsville.

“ I can remember Ron as he ran the backhoe many times for us as we constructed buildings in the Clarion area. My dad, Elmer Thomas, thought well of Ron. So did I. So sorry to see him go. I am praying for your family.
